

Capstone Project - Toronto Battle of Neighborhoods

Introduction

Toronto is the largest city in Canada, the main business center and the financial capital.

Competition is tough for restaurants and investment can be risky.

The idea would be an establishment with a modern approach to cuisine made with seasonal and organic quality ingredients.

This type of cuisine can potentially be successful, the trend is that the public is looking for healthier meals.

As always in this type of business you have to be in the right place at the right moment.

Business problem

Find what areas could be considered for a restaurant.

Use this data to further answer the question what would be the best area for a business owner or property developer to open a restaurant that will be successful in a competitive environment such as Toronto downtown.
